

JEFF, SARAH & LEIGHTON

HELLO!

We are Jeff and Sarah. Thank you for taking the time to read our letter and learn about us and our life together.

We are humbled by your difficult journey as you figure out the best option for you and your baby. Though we don't know your exact life path, we do know that we have deep respect for you. We're praying for you and your baby, filled with hope that you'll come to a decision that's right for you.

We're excited to share with you a little bit about both of us and the life we share together. The tug is strong in our hearts and our minds to pursue adoption and introduce a baby and birth family into our lives.

We love each other, our daughter, our family, our friends and our neighbors in a big way. Thank you again for taking a look.

ABOUT SARAH (WRITTEN BY JEFF)

Sarah is warm, caring, and sincere –you’ll notice it for yourself right away when you meet her. Her empathy and genuine care for other people are magnetic. That’s probably why she finds herself being a listening ear for friends, family, and coworkers.

Sarah puts these qualities to use working in marketing for a nonprofit focused on international poverty relief. Her big heart has a special concern for women and children, and she’s been thinking about and praying for you and your baby for many months now.

When she’s not being an awesome mom to our kiddo, Sarah might be cooking, reading, or practicing yoga. She can’t wait to meet you and hear your story.

ABOUT JEFF (WRITTEN BY SARAH)

Jeff is the biggest optimist I know. He keeps everyone laughing (especially our daughter) and brings joy to our home, always focusing on the bright side of things.

Jeff loves to be with people any chance he gets. Whether with friends, family or neighbors, he sets people at ease and makes them feel accepted. This helps a lot in his day job in communications for a tech company.

Jeff spends his spare time playing with our daughter, listening to podcasts, playing board games, reading, and baking bread.

Jeff is an incredible father to our daughter. He was made to be a dad, and he can’t wait to invite another child into our family.

OUR HOME AND FAMILY

We love spending time together as a couple and with our daughter. On any given day, you might find us riding bikes around the city, hiking, going on family walks, reading every book in the house, cooking delicious meals together or watching movies.

Our life may seem simple from the outside looking in, but we love it that way. We try hard to put each other first. That means we don't have a crazy schedule, so that we can enjoy the little things in life, like making popsicles in the summer and curling up under a blanket reading books in the winter. Everyone who comes to our house remarks about how cozy and inviting it is. We love that because we want to convey warmth and comfort to anyone who enters our life.

MEET LEIGHTON

We have one little girl at home, Leighton, who is the light of our lives. Her spirit brings us so much joy, and we would love to have a bigger family and siblings for her.

OUR ADVENTURES TOGETHER

Though we crave simplicity in our day-to-day life, we do love to travel and experience life in new places. In our nearly 10 years of marriage together, we have had many adventures visiting friends and family across the country and world.

Some of our favorite places we've visited have been Paris, Amsterdam, London, Israel, Hawaii, Seattle and Oregon. We hope to continue to invest in this love of travel and learning about new cultures and ideas for our kids.

Thank you again for considering our family! We're excited for the opportunity to meet you and hear more of your story.

With gratitude,
Jeff and Sarah
