Christian Family Care

Discipline Agreement

In addition to all physical punishment prohibited by Christian Family Care's Behavior Management Policy, STRONG Families Host Families agree that:

- Discipline should be connected to, and appropriate in degree to, the behavior.
- All comments about, and conversations with, the child's family should be positive and encouraging in nature.
- Food, including parts of a meal, types of food, or a whole meal, must not be used as a form of discipline or restricted as a result of a child's behavior.
- Contact with parents, by phone, text, video, or in-person, etc. may not be restricted as a form of discipline.
- Necessary personal hygiene items (e.g., toothpaste, toothbrush, soap, comb, feminine products, cultural hair/skin products, etc.) may not be removed, restricted, or withheld from a child.
- Discipline may not include bathing, cold/hot showers, etc.
- Exercise may not be deprived, or assigned or forced, including taking uncomfortable positions, strenuous or harsh work.
- Toilet accidents may occur, at any age, and should be addressed in non-shaming, matter-of-fact ways.
- If a parent/legal guardian suggests a discipline technique the violates the above statements or CFC's Behavior Management Policy, I/we will notify STRONG Families and agree not to act on the suggestion.
- The above statements and CFC's Behavior Management Policy supersede a parent's approval of any of the prohibited discipline/punishment strategies.
