

Addison & Eric

Oscar & Kairos

Hello! We are honored that you would take the time to get to know our family. We believe God has an amazing story for each one of us, and we are excited to see it unfold.

A little bit about us, we got married in British Columbia, Canada in 2018, and have since had two little boys. Adoption has been something we have talked about since before we were even married. We are a multi-cultural family and have lived in many different parts of the world in our lifetime. Addie is a stay-at-home mom, and a normal day looks like going on a walk to a park, collecting a million rocks, loving through meltdowns, baking cookies, jumping in the pool, and hanging out with family. Eric is a part-time Registered Nurse and part-time realtor. We love getting to travel and eat. Thank you for considering us and we believe the best is yet to come in your story!

MEET OUR FAMILY

Addie by Eric

Addie is self-less, she gives so much care and love to others before her self. She takes care of her family from the bottom of her heart. Addie is thoughtful, caring, and tender. She loves to make other people feel special and pray for everyone she meets. Her favourite things are creating crafts, baking cookies, traveling to the beach, and playing trains all day with Oz and Kai.

Eric by Addie

Eric is one of the most energetic, passionate and purposeful people I know. He always wants people to feel better than when they started. Eric wants to give his family the best. Eric loves to eat, he could literally eat all day long. He also loves taking our family on adventures. His favourite things to do are playing cars with the boys, going swimming, working out, meeting new people and listening to worship music.

Oscar by mom & dad

Loves: biking, playing with sand and swimming

Favorite food: cucumbers and tomatoes

Favorite place: playing in the ocean

Oscar is: funny, passionate and smart

Oz loves to count and explore. If he could live outside 24/7 he would. He loves telling jokes, collecting rocks and hugs.

Kairos by mom & dad

Loves: Dancing, swimming and playing with Oscar

Favorite food: cookies and carrots

Favorite place: walks with Lulu (dog)

Kairos is: caring, gentle, silly and loving

Kai loves dogs and calls every dog his “puppy”. He loves dancing, jumping, singing and running down very steep hills.

OUR EXTENDED FAMILY

We love getting to spend time with family. We are a family that loves to eat together, swim together and laugh together.

OUR PROMISE

We promise that our family will be a place of love, safety, kindness, joy, courage, care and gentleness. We will do whatever it takes to care for, provide for and love your child. We promise to be a place where your child can talk to us, learn with us and grow with us. We promise to explore, uncover and nurture the dreams and hopes your child has. We promise to always be open about the adoption journey, celebrate the child's adoption and never forget the importance of the decision you made. You are strong and brave and have chosen life for your precious baby and we believe there are many blessings in that. Thank you for considering our family and we cannot wait to see what happens next!
