

Meet Jose!

Jose is a caring, shy, and happy almost teen who LOVES basketball.

Jose also loves skateboarding and talking about his dream car, a charger! Jose loves those around him and is always looking for ways to help, share, or care for others. He loves Takis, blue Gatorade, and all kinds of gum! He loves science, especially when he gets to learn about the Earth and other planets in space.

Every free second of Jose's time is spent playing basketball. Jose wants a family that is also as active as him and shares his love for basketball. Jose loves both going out and staying home to do fun things. Jose is looking for a single mom who can provide stability and love for him as he explores his talents. Jose would do well with older male siblings. Jose loves dogs and hopes to have his own dog one day.

Jose was born in 2012.
