

Meet Kevin!

Kevin is an amazing and energetic young boy with a passion for superheroes, Pokémon, and a love for spending quality time with others.

His interests in playing with Legos, making friendship bracelets, and drawing comics show his creativity and imagination. His enthusiasm and talkative nature make him a joy to be around, as he shares his excitement and ideas with those he interacts with.

The ideal family would consist of a mom and dad, or just a mom who enjoys playing around, and just being silly together. A family that is warm and has solid boundaries would be great. Older siblings who can provide a good influence on Kevin would be ideal, but Kevin would do well in a home where the parents can give structure, one-on-one attention for Kevin, patience, love, and redirection. A family that is understanding and patient, will allow Kevin the time to get comfortable and build trust.

Kevin was born in 2013.
