

Meet Manny!

Manny is an easy-going, humorous, and sincere teen with a peaceful demeanor.

His favorite holiday is Christmas, he loves spreading holiday cheer and participating in all winter-related activities. Manny has a generous heart; his ideal day would be spent shopping for gifts to surprise his friends. Video games are his favorite pastime. He enjoys playing online with his friends, working together as a team, and sharing plenty of jokes along the way. Manny's great sense of humor brings laughter to those around him.

On hot summer days, Manny loves cooling off at the pool with a refreshing swim. In his spare time, he enjoys watching anime, snacking on Takis, and listening to hip-hop and R&B, music. Always open to trying new experiences, Manny approaches life with curiosity and kindness. He's eager to learn Spanish and hopes to one day add it to his growing list of skills.

Manny would thrive in a two-parent or a one-parent household of any gender. He would enjoy being an older sibling or an only child. The ideal family will offer love, nurture, and a lasting commitment to his bright future. He dreams of joining a family who will share his love for Christmas, video games, and creating special memories together.

Manny was born in 2007.
