

Meet Owen!

Owen is a lively, goofy and fun-loving boy!

Some of his favorite activities include playing video games, baking cookies, drawing, rapping, writing lyrics, geocaching, and making creative and intricate designs with his Legos. Quick to engage in conversation, Owen is confident sharing his thoughts and opinions with those around him and advocates well for himself.

Additionally, Owen enjoys socializing and writing Rap music the most as he hopes to become part of a family that can help him achieve his goal of becoming a songwriter. Owen loves to have one-on-one attention through adventures, conversations, watching movies, and sports. On the way home, you could even have dinner at his favorite restaurant, Olive Garden, or anywhere he can get pizza or a hamburger.

Owen wants families to know his favorite sports teams are the Steelers, Diamondbacks, and the Golden State Warriors. All in all, Owen needs a loving family that can provide stability, boundaries, and structure. He would do best as the only or youngest child with only older male siblings in a two-parent household with a mom and dad. He doesn't mind whether there are or aren't pets in the home.

Owen was born in 2007.
