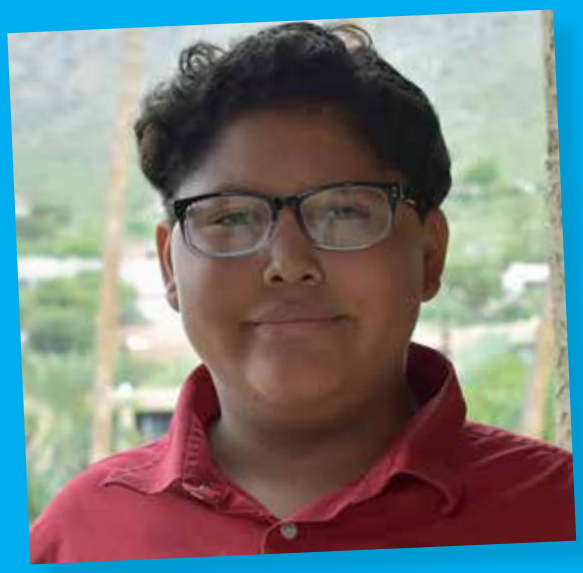
Meet Adelino!



Adelino, or "Lino" as his friends call him, is a sweet and creative kid with a big imagination.

He has a kind heart and enjoys getting to know new people. Whether he's playing video games or challenging someone to a round of Uno (his favorite game), Lino always brings a fun and lighthearted energy to the room. He also has a great sense of humor and loves cracking jokes.

Lino is passionate about art and enjoys drawing, painting, sewing, and making homemade stickers. He often sketches characters or landscapes, using colored pencils to bring his ideas to life. When it comes to school, math is his favorite subject, and in his free time, he loves watching movies, especially comedies or anime films. He's a big fan of pepperoni pizza; it's his favorite meal. Lino also enjoys spending time in nature, whether he's going for a walk, hiking a trail, or swimming in the summer– it brings him a sense of peace and calm.

Lino dreams of joining a loving family where he can share his creativity and adventurous spirit. He would love to be a part of a two-parent household and is open to having siblings. He imagines traveling with his family, creating art for them, and making special memories together.
