Meet Alexander - Alex!

Alex is a kind, approachable young man with a warm smile and an easygoing nature that helps him connect effortlessly with others.

He enjoys both quiet moments and active fun — playing board games like Uno, diving into video games, rollerblading, swimming, and exploring new places. Alex especially cherishes shared experiences, whether it's spending time outdoors with friends or enjoying a sweet treat like ice cream after a fun day.

At school and in daily life, Alex's friendly personality and positive attitude shine through. He values the strong, supportive relationships he has built and takes pride in being thoughtful and considerate toward others. Alex is motivated to continue growing and looks forward to finding a family who will encourage his confidence and independence.

Alex would thrive in a loving, stable home that offers clear expectations, consistency, and encouragement. He would do well in a one- or two-parent family and is comfortable with siblings who are either older or younger than him. Gentle pets would be a welcome addition. Whether his family enjoys staying active or prefers a relaxed routine, Alex simply hopes for a place where he feels safe, valued, and loved — a family to call his own.

Alexander was born in 2010.
