Meet Logan!

Logan is a playful and confident young man.

He loves playing video games and hanging out with his friends. Logan is a very active kid who enjoys high energy activities. He loves to play sports like basketball, boxing, and MMA. Logan relaxes in his down time by listening to music and reading. Logan is often very friendly, outgoing, and energetic. When it comes to food, some of Logan's favorite places to eat include Panda Express and McDonald's. Logan also loves snacks like Mexican candies and blue Takis.

When it comes to school, Logan likes to remain active and enjoys hands on learning. He likes to partake in physical activities and enjoys taking boxing classes. Logan enjoys learning about various worldviews and talking with others about their life experiences. He is not quite sure want he wants to do when he grows up but is interested in cars and mixed martial arts. He has also expressed a desire to explore the military for careers or possibly social services.

Logan would do best in a two-parent household consisting of a mom and dad. He is open to having pets and siblings and believes he would benefit from older siblings who can set a good example for him. Logan does best in a highly structured environment and would benefit from a family that follows a strict routine. Logan prefers to remain close to his current connections and wishes to reside in Arizona, Texas, or California in the future. Logan was born in 2011.
