Meet Adrianna!

Adrianna is bright, playful, bubbly, and curious once she feels comfortable.

Adrianna loves expressing herself through fashion, learning to care for her hair, experimenting with makeup, and exploring different styles. She absolutely loves music—especially Taylor Swift—and proudly identifies as a Swiftie. "Lavender Haze" is her favorite song, and she dreams of attending a Taylor Swift concert someday.

Adrianna enjoys school and does especially well when learning is hands-on and engaging. She is proud when she learns something new and enjoys sharing her knowledge with others. Reading is her favorite subject, especially stories that explore emotions and imagination. With peers, Adrianna prefers one-on-one connections where she feels safe and supported.

Adrianna would thrive in a two-parent home with patient, understanding, and trauma-informed caregivers. She would do well with older siblings, particularly an older sister, but is also open to being an only child. She needs consistency, structure, open communication, and a family that enjoys fun outings such as water parks, shopping, and camping. Pets are welcome, but no reptiles or insects. Maintaining family connections in Arizona is important to Adrianna and she would like to make sure they stay in contact.

Adrianna was born in 2014.
